Privacy Notice

Melbourne Water respects the privacy of your personal information and we collect and handle it in accordance with the Privacy and Data Protection Act 2014 (Vic).

When you apply for a diversion licence, we require you to provide your name and contact details, the address of the specified land and other particulars of the licence, in accordance with Part 4B of the Water Act 1989 and for the purpose of processing your application. We may be unable to process your application if your information is incomplete.

If your licence is approved, this information will be available to Melbourne Water staff, and its agents and contractors and the Victorian Department of Energy, Environment, and Climate Action to the extent necessary to administer and communicate with you about your licence. Subject to other laws, your information will be included in, and publicly available through, the Victorian Water Register (www.waterregister.vic.gov.au), in accordance with Part 4B of the Water Act 1989. The register is administered by the Victorian Department of Energy, Environment, and Climate Action.

We may also share your name and contact details with contractors for the purpose of customer experience research. De-identified information about your licence will be used for statistical water information.

By applying for a diversion licence, you are consenting to the use and disclosure outlined above.

Our Privacy Policy is available on our website.

Note that water allocations may be subject to reduced quantities being available when Drought Restrictions are in force.
